Forsythe Colt, Backed From 8 Down to 5 to 2, Makes Layers Grean-Another Trick With Beckon Falls-Priscillian a Star Colt-Andrew Miller's Hoodeo.

One of the best managed coups that has been pulled off on a local racetrack in many a day was the victory of F. A. Forsythe's Bon Homme in the Maiden Stakes at Belmont 'ark yesterday. In the overnight entries Forsythe named his crack two-year-old High Private to go to the post, and as this youngster was conceded to be the best of his age that had been shown here so far this season it was a foregone conclusion that he would win. But those who knew the secrets of this formidable stable declared early in the day that at the last moment High Private would be scratched and that Bon formme, a colt by Oddfellow-Belle of St. Louis, would be added. It was also whispered that Bon Homme was the equal if not the superior of High Private and that in order get a price Jockey Shreve would have the leg up.

This information, which was received by lect few, turned out to be most accurate, for High Private was withdrawn and Bon Homme, with Shreve up, was posted as Forsythe's representative at the eleventh hour A rumor was quickly circulated that High Private had been scratched because Trainer taleigh Colston did not believe he could defeat Frank Gardner's Statesman, a fast colt by Kinley Mack-Janice. There was such a hot tip about Statesman that he opened at even money, whereupon there was a solid play on him all over the ring. Meanwhile the chalkers were apparently in the air as to the real worth of Bon Homme. Some of them put up 12 to 1, but they were quickly surrounded by men who wanted to get a crack at the juicy odds. Others refused wagers at 10 and finally took a few at 8. The play became so general, however, that the price dropped to 4, then to 7 to 2 and finally 5 to 2, there being a heavy plunge just as the horses reached the post.

It was said after the Forsythe colt won that he had been played in different Western cities and that a large amount had been cleaned up. The biggest winner on Bon Homme at the track was Leo Mayer, who also cleaned up when Tenancy by Courtesy won the opening event at 15 to 1. Mayer told his friends that he had won enough to buy a "nice new automobile" at least. Statesman went back in the betting to 7 to 5, but he ran a creditable race for his first time out. Eschau, who ran third in the Wilson silks, is a colt by Ornament-Gurgle. H. B. Duryea's Donation, who started in this race, is a filly by Dieudonne-Ricaber, while Paul J. Rainey's colors were borne by Balboa, a colt by Watercress-Lady Lucan. Shreve rode a very clever race on Bon Homme and convinced many that he will prove a first class boy this year. Previous winners of the Maiden Stakes were Gallavant, Martin Lester and Transvaal.

Another killing was attempted with the Brownleigh Park Stable's Beckon, a filly by Plaudit-Semaphore, in the second event. There was some 4 to 1 at the opening, but it was quickly demolished, until Beckon was a red hot favorite at 7 to 5. This caused Zienap to go back from 7 to 5 to 18 to 5, although she looked to be the class of the race. Complete also went back half a point to 7 to 2, while Royal Lady opened at 4 and closed at 5. The trick with Beckon did not go through, lowever, as she bolted on the far turn, the books winning heavily on her defeat. Zienap gave nine pounds by the scale to Royal Lady, out was in receipt of sixteen pounds from Beckon and one from Complete.

That August Belmont has a star threeyear-old in his Hastings gelding Priscillian was the verdict after the fifth race. Priscillian shouldered 117 pounds, conceding fourteen to Dandelion, seventeen to Mark Antony II., nineteen to Berkeley and thirty-nine to D'Arkle. He was an overwhelming favorite, the talent taking the short price of

"Too bad he is not eligible for the English Derby this year, for he would win it in a walk. He is a better three-year-old than Norman

As there was a strong place play on Berkeley too the ring received a staggering blow. Dandelion ran another bad race and created the belief that he is either in poor physical trim or that he has permanently joined the has been class.

Anybody who bets on this race is weak in the upper story!" said several turf sharps in the paddock just before the opening event There were nineteen starters and all kinds of tips. Tenancy by Courtesy, owned by the Beverwyck Stable, was backed from 25 to 1 15, with a good play three ways. John J. Hyland's Pontoon, who ran second, was another good thing, played across the boards and cut from 50 to 20. He was ridden by Cullen, a stable boy. A. L. Aste tried to put over a killing with Crack Shot, who was backed from 20 to 8, but ran third. Sandal was the favorite, going up from 3 to 4, while Senator Clay was well supported at 5 and Paul J. Rainey's John Marrs was lowered from 8 to 6. Roy A. Rainey's Glenham was also tipped and cut from 10 to 8. The books lost heavily on the three placed horses.

James McLaughlin's good filly Personal, who won the fourth race, opened favorite at 5 to 2, but went up to 4. Th s was due to the backing accorded to half a dozen supposed good things. One of them was J. C. Goode's Lucille R., a filly by Sombrero --Graziosa, who was reduced from 10 to 5. Another was R. L. Thomas's Lady Irma, by Sempronius-Lady Balgowan, backed from 15 to 16 and taken three ways. Takahira, Opal, Ramble and Arionette were also played the strength of past performances.

The talent went to Tileing in the last race as if it was all over but the shouting. They backed McCormick's horse from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5, while Zal went back half a point to 5 to 2. Park Row was backed from 15 to 10, while there was plenty of support for both Troublemaker and Faust. When Faust fell in a jam on the backstretch some of the spectators thought that Tileing was the cause of the mixup. But it turned out afterward that Troublemaker was to blame because of Noter's rough riding, while it was also rumored that the stewards might furnish Notter with a suspension to go into effect to-day.

Andrew Miller, one of the owners of McCarter, the beaten favorite in the Metropolitan handicap, was looking for the hoodoo which got some fine work on Wednesday. It was the thirteenth day of the month and there were thirteen starters in the big race. Mc-Carter was beaten, Jockey Musgrave was suspended by the starter for four days, which deprived the Newcastle Stable of his services; Mr. Miller's chauffeur was arrested on the way home from the track and later on M Miller, while indulging in some playful wrestling with a friend, dislocated his thumb. After Personal won the fourth race, for hich he was entered to be sold for $1,300. C. Goode, who ran second with Lucille R. old up the winner to $2,000, when owner Me-Laughlin bid an extra $5. The boost netted $350 for Googe. P. T. Chinn has purchased the contract of

trotting horse man. The programme for the United Hunts meeting to be run at the new track just outside of Belmont Park on Decoration Day was made public yesterday. The races will be run in the morning, beginning at 11 o'clock. The first event is the Clark cup, a steeplechase at about three miles and a half, over a natural hunting country course. The second race is he Timber Toppers Selling Hurdle Plate, at about two miles. The third race is the Decoration Day Stakes, a handicap steeplechase, at about two miles and a half. The fourth event is the Hunt cup, at about three miles, while the last race is the La Monyague cup, gentieman riders, one mile on the flat.

ANGLERS CLUB TOURNAMENT.

Fly and Balt Casting Competitions for Prizes on Hariem Mere.

Casting contests with trout, salmen and balt rods were held yesterday on Harlem Mere, at the northeast corner of Central Park, to start the third annual tournament of the Anglers Club of New York. There was the usual gathering of unappreciative East Side residents and crowds of children on the walk bordering the mere, but there were few experts about except the contestants and judges. There was a gusty wind and the casts were made down the lake to gain the lee of the bank. It is a sober and contemplative sport, this of casting all day and careless of a catch, yet the experts broke into cheers during the salmon fly when Plevins gained 129 feet and Mills, the professional, did 140 feet.

All the contestants were entered from All the contestants were entered from the Anglers Club except C. J. McCarty of Boston, A. J. Marsh, Newark, and F. E. Wood, Mount Kisco. Half a dozen finished in the balt casting for distance with half ounce weights, won by W. J. Ehrich at 200 feet. The distance equalled the club record established by Charles Stepath at the last tournament. Using an eight and three-eighths ounce rod W. M. Plevins won the trout fly casting for distance open to those who have never cast over seventy-five feet in such an event.

never cast over seventy-five feet in such an event.

There was a similar contest to follow, but with quarter ounce weights. Dr. Held, the winner with 161 feet, smashed all Eastern records and possibly those of the West. The Eastern professional mark had been 137 feet, made in Madison Square Garden, and the amateur record, made outdoors, had been 131½ feet. E. B. Rice, who took second prize, also broke records with 142 feet. In the three contests noted backlashes that tangled the lines spoiled most of the scoring.

"Poor fellow! He won't catch a fish if he tries all day!" exclaimed a schoolgir as W. M. Plevins began the salmon fly casting for distance. All used fifteen foot rods, although the one professional, E. J. Mills, could have used a longer one. The mark is 152 feet, made by John Enright of Ireland with an eighteen foot rod on Harlem Mere two years ago. Plevins made three good casts, the longest of 129 feet, which was pronounced an amateur record under the conditions. E. J. Mills made three grand casts, winning the professionals rize with 140 feet. This is pronounced as three grand casts, winning the professionals' prize with 140 feet. This is pronounced a record for a fifteen foot rod. Last year R. C. Leonard won this event with 140½ feet, but he had a longer rod. Mills was second then with 130 feet. The summaries.

University Club at St. Andrews and Women at Englewood.

A high and cold wind was somewhat against low scoring yesterday at the Englewood Golf Club, yet the special tournament for members of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association proved to be a great success. An Englewood member, Mrs. L. W. Callan, with the card of 98, 4-94, won both gross and net score prizes. Under the rules she could take but one prize and Mrs. Callan took that for the best gross card. This made Mrs. E. F. Sanford, 107, card. Inis made Mrs. E. F. Santord, 107, 86-101, winner of the net prize. Of the three players at scratch Mrs. F. S. Lefferts had the good score for the blustery day of 102, but neither Miss Elehop nor Miss Mix did themselves justice. The cards:

BON HOMME WINS THE MAIDEN

FORSYTHE'S COLT, AN ADDED STARTER, BEATS STATESMAN.

Priscillian and Zienap Capture the Handicaps-Tenancy by Courtesy, Personal and Tileing Take the Other Races Over a Slow Track at Belmont Park.

There was a big falling off in the attendance Belmont Park yesterday, as was expected after the great crowd on Wednesday; but at that 12,000 persons enjoyed the sport. The stake feature was the Maiden, for two-yearolds, five furlongs, straightaway, which was the medium for a killing with F. A. Forsythe's Bon Homme, a speedy colt by Oddfellow-Belle of St. Louis. Forsythe's High Private was scratched and Bon Homme was an added starter. He was ridden by Shreve and was backed from 10 down to 5 to 2, the quotation ust as the barrier went up. Unce away from the post Bon Homme made all the running, but at the end he was pretty well extended to win by a half a length from F. E. Gardner's Statesman, 7 to 5 favorite. R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Eschau, 8 to 1, was eight lengths back The race was run over a slow track, Bon Homme's time being 1:01 2-5.

August Belmont's Priscillian, 3 to 5 favor te, ran a bang up race in the handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth. E. Dugan took the track with him at the start, the son of Hastings, with 117 pounds, making a runaway of it all the way to the wire, where he had a margin of three lengths in 1:47 1-6. Berkeley, backed down a point to 5, was the runner up always and took the place from D'Arkle, 60 to 1, by three lengths. Mark Antony II., 8 to 1, quit badly in the stretch. Dandelion, who went up to 5 to 1, was last all the way, Shaw being up to 5 to 1, was last all the way. Shaw being unable to make him raise a good gallop.

Zienap, receding to 16 to 5, was successful in the handicap for mares and filles, at a mile. Beckon, a red hot favorite, showed the way to the middle of the turn, where she ran out, finishing last. Then G. Burns took command with Zienap, who had to be ridden out to beat Royal Lady, 5 to 1, by a length and a half. Complete, 7 to 2, was a poor third, while Beckon was last. The time was 142 1-5.

There were nineteen starters in the opening event, for platers, at six furlongs, straightaway. Tenancy by Courtesy, 15 to 1, led ing event, for platers, at six furiongs, straight-away. Tenancy by Courtesy, 15 to 1, led practically all the way and won galloping by three lengths in 1:13 3-5. Pontoon, backed from 50 to 20, closed in the last furiong and nailed the place from Crack Shot, backed from 20 to 8, by a head. Sandal, Senator Clay and John Marrs, the public choices, were easily

John Marrs, the public choices, were easily outfooted.

With sixteen starters in the fourth event, for two-year-olds, at half a mile, Personal, a lukewarm favorite, came away under a drive in the last furlong and won by a length and a half from Lucille R., backed down to 5. The latter was half a length before Lady Irma, reduced to 10, while Etherial, a 300 to 1 shot, was half a length out of the money. Arionette, 5 to 1, led for more than half the distance, but stopped when the crisisarrived. Tileing, 6 to 5 favorite, was pounds the best in the last race, a selling affair at a mile. E. Dugan did not get him away well at the start, but he rushed him to the contending position before he reached the turn, where Zal, 5 to 2, was leading by seven lengths. At the head of the stretch Tileing, when let down, simply romped past Zal and beat him in a gallop by three lengths. Zal was hard pressed by Park Row, reduced to 10, who was beaten a scant half length for the place. In the run up the backstretch Faust was jammed to the rail by Troublemaker and fell, Jockey Flynn, however, was not seriously hurt. There was a delay before the red board went up, as the stewards did a little investigating of the accident on their own hook. The time was 140 2.5. There favorites won and as the YALE VIEW OF DUAL MEET. So Closely Matched With Harvard That Prediction Is Only a Guess.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 14.- The Yale Alumni Weekly last night made the statement that the Harvard and Yale track teams are so evenly matched that an opinion as to the winner next Saturday would be nothing better than a guess. A comparison of the results of what Harvard did at the track meet at Soldiers Field last Saturday and what Yale did n the Princeton meet last Saturday shows, according to this authority, that with only one or two exceptions the performances at New Haven were better than at Cambridge.

The Weekly adds: "Prawing conclusions from the comparison of Saturday's games Yale should win, but the handicap of a strange track will even up Yale's apparent advantage. Harvard should win from Yale the half, the two mile, one of the hurdles, the shot, the broad and the high umps, and has an equal chance with Yale in the dashes.

"Yale ought to win the two sprints if Carey is right, the quarter, the mile, one of the hurdles, the pole vault and hammer throw, and should be able to pick up enough seconds and thirds to make the total more than 52 points. Any slip in the programme will mean the loss of the meet, for Harvard's team is a strong and well balanced one, with a number of experienced men on it. team is a strong and well balanced one, with a number of experienced men on it.

"Hopeful figurers work it out that with Butler and Stevens in form and nothing untoward happening to some one else in this unlucky team. Yale can take enough points to win the intercollegiates. But the chances are against them being in form and against Yale doing better than third place to Pennsylvania and Cornell."

MISS MOORE A WINNER.

She Defeats Miss Wagner in Finely Played Lawn Tennis Singles.

Women players competed yesterday on the courts of the Murray Hill Tennis Club at Murray Hill, N. J. In the singles Mrs. William H. Pouch and Miss Elizabeth H. Moore got through one set in the final round when the rain caused an ending. Mrs. Pouch won that, 8-6. In the doubles Mrs. A. H. Mac-Carthy and Miss Marie Wagner are to play Miss Louise Hammond and Miss Elsie Little in the finals. The feature match yesterday was that in singles between Miss Wagner and Miss Moore. Miss Wagner beat Miss Moore in the recent door championships for the first time, but yesterday could not do as well. It was a finely played match, full of excellent tenis. Miss Moore came off the better after three hard sets. There was another good contest when Miss Moore met Miss Marcus in the semi-flusi round. The score was of straight sets, but the play was keen never-players had lunch at the home of Mrs Walter C. Auferman and tea later at the clubhouse. The matches may be delayed to-day because of engagements which may keep the finalists away. The summary:

PARET'S GOOD MATCH Veteran Beats Touchard Handily in Harlem T. C. Semi-Finals.

It was very late when Paret got to the courts and the rain had started, but the players went on anyway. Touchard used three racquets, Paret one, in the course used three racquets, Paret one, in the course of the game and although it "oftimes has been said one cannot stand 'gainst three," Paret's one proved the better.

The older player ran the first five games out, just through steadiness and splendid calculation. Then Touchard, a brilliant enough chap, whipped the ball about for points enough to get two games. Paret took the eighth and the set. In the second Paret won the first game but lost the next two. These latter were deuce games, the first of the match. Thereafter Touchard got wild again and played his usual far from serious minded game. Paret was applauded when he finished. He will have to meet in the final round the winner of the match between H. J. Mollenhauer and J. Condon, which will be played to-day.

Alumni Team Beats C. C. N. Y. at Lacrosse. The lacrosse team of the College of the City of New York was defeated in a close game at Jasper Field yesterday by an alumni team by 4 goals to 2. The two coaches of team by 4 goals to 2. The two coaches of the college, Holten and Rosenblat, played against the varsity. The stick work of both teams was about even, but the goal shooting of the grads was very effective. Ruge scored two and Moran and Baum each one.

For the varsity Berman scored in the first half in a scrimmage before the cage and Belmont in the second with an easy shot. Capt. Pasternack, the college goalkeeper, played a fine game and stopped many shots.

FIRST INNING RUNS ENOUGH

GIVE NEW YORK AMERICANS A WINNING LEAD.

Brilliant and Ragged Work in Game With the Clevelands-Hot Plays and Chilly Weather-Athletics and Washingtons Take Shutout Victories From Rivals.

In the three games played in the American League yesterday the losers-all Western teams were very scarce of cuns. One of them scored one run, the Clevelands, who were beaten again by the New Yorks. In Washington the St. Louis team was blanked, and in a game in Philadelphia dominated by the pitchers the White Sox were shut out. The results:

NEW YORK (A. L.), 3; CLEVELAND, 1 The Highlanders flopped the Clevelands again yesterday in a game which contained playing that was exceptionally good and playing that was ragged and headless. Both sides broke into the latter class of play, while again yesterday in a game which contained playing that was exceptionally good and playing that was ragged and headless. Both sides broke into the latter class of play, while the other sort was done exclusively by the New Yorks. The Hillmen frequently got themselves in hot water through errors of commission and omission and then got out of it by some brilliant play. Ball, Hemphil and Chase each kept the visitors from scoring a second time by speedy, difficult performances which made the spectators marvel. Ball and Chase made their plays when men were on bases, nullifying blunders that had put the game in danger. They were hot plays and they were welcome, for it was cold and windy and dark, and the spectators would have frozen but for something to stir them up now and then. The home team's ability to redeem itself for poor work was the most gratifying phase of a game with curious twists and aspests.

The fact that eleven of the Clevelands were left on bases shows how often they good pitching by Chesbro in puches. There were several scratchy, fluky hits off Chesbro. On a couple of occasions Niles forgot what he was out there for and failed to cover the base. Once he forgot to cover second on a forced grounder to Ball, and once he did not cover first on a bunt which Chase ran in for. Another time Chase balked Niles by crossing in front of him and leaving first uncovered. Niles fumbled, but it was chase's fault. The New Yorks batted Thielman out of the box in the first inning. Berger, his successor, pitched a fine game. Nig Clarke retired with a damaged finger caused by a foul tip and Bemis did the rest of the backstopping in first class style.

Niles singled to right in the first inning and was forced by Keeler. Hemphill singled to right, sending Keeler to third and taking second himself on Hickman's slouchy return. Chase brought both men in with a vett past Perring, Hal, old boy, stealing second and scoring on Ball's hit. The third inning saw the next and final instalment of scoring. Ball's fumble on Stovall, the ally with a telescope, and in the same in Villie Keeler went out on strikes for the e in succession right smart feat for Willie Keeler went out on strikes for the second time in succession right smart feat for Heine Berger.

The New Yorks made a double play in the sixth inning that was due to the foolishness of the Clevelands, or rather one-ninth of that aggregation. Hinchman was on first when Kleinow dropped a third strike on Perring. Perring was out anyway under the rules, but Hinchman, instead of holding his bag, ran for second. A rapid passage of the ball from Kleinow to Chase to N.Jes caught the gentleman of the delinquent gray matter between sanctuaries.

Ball made a good step of Lajoie's grass cutter in the eighth. In threw high and wide to Chase. Hel old boy, launched himself in the air with glove uplifted higher than the torch arm of Liberty and the ball glued itself to the intercepting mitt. While thase was coming down he made a swooping swing for Lajoie and tagged Larry on the shoulder. It was a hair raiser, and the capillary crowns of the spectators stood crect again in the nanth, Ball being the cause.
